Purpose

We use the photo/film recordings to document and communicate the 'Future Forum 2024' conference. Publication and use are possible as follows

- in internal communication media of Max Solar GmbH and Energy Partners GmbH (Connect/Network)
- on the internet and on the company's social media channels
- in external publications
- for distribution to local and national media (print, online, TV)

Storage duration

We store your data for documentation and further communication in order to enable the use mentioned under purpose for future events. The recordings are archived after 5 years.

Legal basis and legitimate interest

The processing is based on our legitimate interest in visually documenting the anniversary celebration organised by us and reporting positively on it (Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f) GDPR).

Recipients and categories of recipients

If necessary, we pass on personal data to companies in our group or to external service providers. These process the data as part of order processing and are involved in the processing (e.g. for IT services). Other recipients of your data may be Press/media, public authorities on the basis of legal provisions (e.g. social insurance institutions, tax authorities, police, public prosecutor's office, supervisory authorities).

Your rights

You have the right to information, rectification, erasure, restriction, objection and data portability. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the data protection authority.

With regard to the processing of the recordings and a possible objection, please contact the following e-mail address directly: events@maxsolar.de
